Covenant of Conduct

In order to ensure a safe and enjoyable experience we agree to the following points of conduct. These points of conduct are to be adhered to from the beginning of the event until the end of the event.

- We agree to stick to our curfew
- We agree to stay out of areas that we are told to stay out of, or away from
- We agree to adhere to the oral, or written, instructions of the director
- We agree to not use violence – physical or otherwise
- We agree to not use, be in possession of, or knowingly be near alcohol, controlled substances, or drugs (unless prescribed by a physician and approved by an adult counselor, or the director)
- We agree not to disrespect the adult counselors, or the director

The results of being in violation of any point of conduct will be immediate dismissal from the event without refund. The parent/guardian of the participant in violation agrees to pick up the participant, upon notification of dismissal, from the event. If for some reason the parent cannot come to pick up the participant, or the parent cannot be contacted, the emergency contacts listed for the participant will be notified in the parent's stead.

The below signed agree to the terms and points of conduct in this covenant. This covenant must be signed by both the participant and a parent, or legal guardian, of the participant. Failure to agree to the terms and conditions of this covenant of conduct will result in forfeit of rights to attend the event.
